

Urban Naturalist Bingo

There is a wide array of wildlife found in urban spaces. From birds and trees to insects and mushrooms, you just have to look closely to find the different organism with which we share our communities. Here are a few common neighbors you can find just walking around your block to get you started. You can practice identifying them, take notes, sketch what you see or just keep a tally on this Bingo!

London Plane Tree

European Starling

Cabbage Butterfly

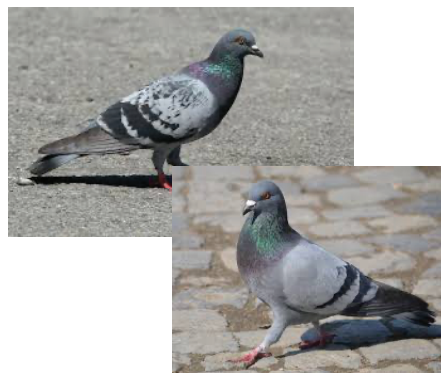

Dandelion

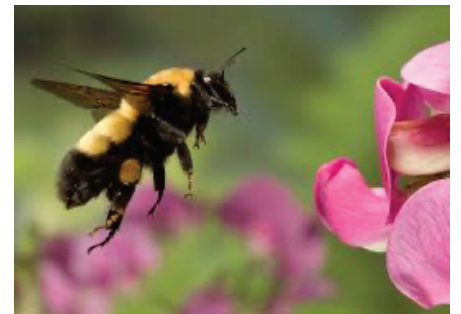

House Sparrow

Eastern Grey Squirrel

Rock Pigeon

Bumblebee